

Stephanie M. Faust

Attorney

sfaust@stevensclay.org | (509) 838-8330

Practice Summary

Stephanie's legal practice involves a broad range of legal issues such as the Public Records Act, labor and employment, general liability, policies and procedures, and other general counsel matters. Stephanie is passionate about providing legal advice and defense for public school districts involving special education and Section 504, administrative hearing requests, OSPI Citizen Complaints, student discipline, and Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act ("FERPA").

Practice Groups

Special Education; Public Records; Litigation

Education

J.D., Gonzaga University School of Law, 2017 cum laude

B.A., Western Washington University, Fairhaven College, 2012

Professional Background

Stevens Clay, P.S., Attorney, 2020-Present

RLH Corp., Attorney, 2019-2020

Roberts Freebourn, PLLC, Attorney, 2017-2019

Witherspoon Brajcich McPhee PLLC, Intern, 2016-2017

Bar Admissions

Washington State Bar, 2017; Idaho State Bar 2018

U.S. District Court, Western District of Washington, 2017

U.S. District Court, District of Idaho, 2018

Personal

Stephanie is the President-Elect for the Spokane County Bar Association's Young Lawyers Division and a board member for the Spokane chapter of the Washington Women Lawyers. In her spare time, Stephanie enjoys hot yoga, cooking, traveling with her husband, and spending time at home with her rescue pets.