

Xavier J. Fox

Diversity Fellow Attorney

xfox@stevensclay.org | (509) 816-3399 Ext. 107

Practice Summary

Xavier advises and defends public school districts and other public employers on a broad range of legal issues, including labor and employment, special education, public records issues, contractual issues, and other general counsel matters.

Xavier is passionate about developing diversity, equity, inclusion, and anti-racism (DEIA) practices for his clients and others in order to better equip our education professionals with the tools needed to effectively serve our future generations of students.

Practice Groups

General Counsel; Labor & Employment; Special Education; Public Records; Contracts & Municipal

Education

J.D., Gonzaga University School of Law, 2022

B.A., Pennsylvania State University, 2018

Professional Background

Stevens Clay, P.S., Attorney, 2022-Present

Bar Admissions

Washington State Bar, 2022

Personal

Xavier continues to volunteer with his alma mater's diversity clubs to contribute to the sense of community for Gonzaga's diverse students. When he isn't volunteering or working, Xavier enjoys playing basketball and volleyball, and chess. Xavier hopes to see Gonzaga Basketball win a national championship soon.